Personal Biography

David Meyer was Vice President of Operations and Sales at c.p. Allstar Corporation from 1997 to 2007. Allstar was a leading manufacturer of residential and commercial garage door operators, gate operators and radio controls, with headquarters in Downingtown, PA. In 1997 Mr. Meyer, along with a small group of investors, participated in the formation of Allstar, and was actively involved in the daily operations until its sale to Linear Corp.

Prior to his involvement with Allstar Mr. Meyer was President and principal owner of Edwards Power Door, a manufacturer of commercial door openers headquartered in Lincoln, NE. Other managerial positions have included Territory Sales Manager for Stanley Door Systems on Long Island, NY, and Manager of Pioneer Overhead Door Company in Las Vegas, NV.

Mr. Meyer's formal educational background includes a Bachelor of Science degree in Hotel Administration and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

Mr. Meyer spent several years actively involved in youth baseball through volunteer work as Vice President and Director of Lincoln Little Chiefs Little League baseball, and as a Director of the Lincoln Rebels Baseball Club.

When not immersed in his work he enjoys movies, reading, travel, and his passion as a published and award-winning photographer.

He currently resides in Glenmoore, PA with Diane Meyer, his wife of 28 years.
